 Dear Berk:

I apologize for being so late in responding to your letter and as you can obviously surmise we were unable to keep our November date as I have been travelling abroad.

I reviewed the agreement you sent and I'm sure we can iron out that and any other particulars when we meet. I remain committed to starting a program along the lines we spoke of and hope to be able to get together with you in January 1988 if your schedule permits. I took your advice and purchased a dozen copies of Thriving on Chaos and gave one to each of our Office Directors. Excellent food for thought.

STAT For planning purposes, [redacted] and I are thinking of travelling to the West Coast circa 20 January. If that date is acceptable to you we will make final plans; if not please feel free to select an alternate date and we will adjust accordingly.

Looking forward to our getting together again.

Regards,

[redacted]
